AS A ROMAN CATHOLIC FAITH COMMUNITY,

- we value the Eucharist as the source and summit of our lives,
- we seek to grow in the Gospel through life-long faith formation,
- we embrace stewardship of time, talents and treasures as a way of discipleship,
- we gather and support one another in community and call forth one another's gifts,
- we engage in the works of charity and transformation of justice,
- we spread the Good News of Jesus and the Spirit.

WEEKEND LITURGIES

Saturday: 4:30 p.m.

Sunday: 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m.

Every evergreen needle that scurries away from the sweeper, every fading poinsettia plant with one last blast of color, and every bit of glitter that fell off a homemade star contains a wonderful memory and a grateful thought of the Advent-Christmas-Epiphany season. My heart swells with joy and thanksgiving as I remember all who made this year's celebrations so faithful and so fantastic.

The pageant produced by Marianne Ivany and crew and acted by our PSR children was touching and heart-warming, reminding us that Jesus needs to be born again and again in our hearts and in our service to one another. I hope you enjoyed the picture of the pageant that was on the Christmas Day bulletin. PSR students made ornaments for the large trees in the hall representing the 12 Days of Christmas. Thanks to the staff and parents who worked so hard to rekindle in all of us the spirit and meaning of Jesus' birth.

The two, great trees in the hall were installed by members of the Knights of Columbus, who also erected the outdoor nativity scene (and who also took them down: Marty Galaska, Armond Fiorentino, Ralph Browske, Mark Burns, Matt McBirney, Paul Cymanski, Herb Gieseler). And, all of us are very grateful for the dedicated efforts of their parking detail, coordinated by Bob Kohn (Bob wrote, "I do not know who all of the Knights that helped were, but I do know that Armond, Herb, and Gary Jancsurak took control"), on a cold Christmas Eve, getting cars sardined together in the lot and quickly out at the end of services.

The church sparkled like a jewel because of the efforts of the two (morning and evening) Church Cleaning Crews, who scrubbed and polished the pews and furnishings. Thanks to Brian Dolney, Viet Le, Mike and Michael Bulone, the Wallack family, Libby, Mary Kate Lukas and Susie Evans, Mary Beth Houlahan, Julie and Kara Dombroski, Isabelle and Maureen Bennett, Josh Kane, Lee Haley, Sr. Lu, Judy Ciehanski, Sharon Gittinger, Mary Casamento and Tony Halas.

A crew of feverish elves volunteered a few hours on a busy Wednesday-before-Christmas evening to erect the crèche and decorate the church with greenery and poinsettias. Thanks to Katie and Andrew Cwalinski, Judy Ciehansky, Darcy Becker, Jan Zimmerman, Julie and Kara Dombroski, Mary Casamento, Sr. Lu, Tony Halas, Jaret Lieberth, Bobby Corrigan, Ashley Osinski, Lisa Pizzurro, Jim and Linda McGinnis, Parker and Erin Blunt, Mac Clapp, the Wallacks, Katelyn, Michael and Lynn Sapp, Bob and Nancy Flanik and Michelle and Janet Cheselka. And to those who "tore down" the Christmas decorations and swept up the church: Michael Bulone, Michael Carbone, Ben Mochler, and Jenny and sons (and lots more helpers but the sign up sheet appeared too late. To those hearty and anonymous workers, a Big Thanks).

Our worship was filled with grace and goodness. Thanks to the faithful altar servers, lectors, Eucharistic ministers, ushers, and hospitality folks, who, like the shepherds, "tend the flock" with their gracious ministries. Thanks to all the musicians, instrumentalists and choir members, who tried to outdo the heavenly hosts with the splendid sounds of joy and peace on earth.

There were other angels: the counters who gave up some vacation time to assist in the time consuming task of sorting and counting the Christmas collection; the parish office and maintenance staff who cheerfully and patiently attended to many background tasks; and to all those brought yummy baked goods, tasty foods, wine and Christmas Eve fish for me to savor. Thanks to all of good heart and who bring good cheer to our parish.

Thanks to the many members of the Social Concerns Committee and many generous parishioners who participated in the annual Giving Tree with over 1,100 names/gifts. All that we believe and celebrate in our Advent-Christmas-Epiphany season was reflected in a simple, hand-written note I received: Thank you for thinking of me with a Christmas present. You don't even know me but your gift was perfect. Don't let your love stop. Thanks again. -H.

And thanks to all the faithful parishioners of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, who, week in and week out, gather for the Eucharist, financially support the mission of the parish, serve generously in many capacities and committees and who bring the peace of Christ to their homes and our community. Thank you for making the star of the Lord's love shine ever brighter.

Blessings,

Rev. James M. Daprile, Pastor

PS: If I missed someone who helped in any way, first of all thank you and please let me know!

Our Parish at Prayer

John was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he said, "Behold, the Lamb of God." The two disciples heard what he said and followed Jesus.
